Paris, June 25.—Up to 4.45 o'clock this afternoon no official word had been received here regarding Germany's plans with regard to the formal signing of the peace treaty.

The Peace Conference leaders were undisguisedly perplexed over the situation. It was conceded to be impossible that the ceremony of signing could take place before Saturday. Unofficial reports were that it probably would be delayed until Monday.

Obstacles to the settlement of the strike her might arise, and if they should thet ther should the the might arise, and if they should the the removal of these obcardes. Said Secretary J. G...Smith, decision is recognized by the executive committee of the conference, which in a report expressed the view that if labor is to institute such a precedent it is insperative that the trainstatement of all the workers on strike would be the only question to solved here following the calling off of the Winnipeg strike is settled. It is understood that the efforts of the Strike Committee to obtain from employers an assurance that all the strikers would be reinstated without prejudice met with little success. The majority of the employers take the attitude that they will deal only with their own men, when they are appeared by the striking employees as a unit with a definite proposition as to when and on what conditions they will return to work.

SIGNATURES FORGERIES

Vancouver, Jupe 25.—Admitting that the signature on a $10,000 note and the endorsement on a cheque for $10,000 were so like his own that he could not distinguish them, Dr. A. P. McLennan, a Vancouver physician, created a sensation here in the Supreme Court by denouncing the signatures on the note and cheque as clever forgeries.

Suit was brought by the Eastern Townships Investment Company for $13,998, principal of and interest on the note, which it was alleged Dr. McLennan had given the company some years ago to assist W. W. Dresden, former manager of the plaintiff company, to make a $30,000 purchase of the Vancouver Wine & Spirit Company's business from Dr. McLennan's friend, Mr. Swinstead, it was alleged that in return for the note the company gave McLennan a cheque for $10,000 and that the proceeds of the cheque were used to help the deal go through.

Dr. McLennan said that he had never taken part in these transactions and would not consider for a moment taking such risks as the note and cheque produced in court were those of Dr. McLennan.

Mr. Justice Morrison reserved his decision.

Company's Plans.

Mr. Connor discussed the plans of the new organization with The Times. He said that the company intended to operate on a basis which he was confident would assure success, and which would merit the confidence of business men. "In Mr. Reynolds, who has been here since last fall," said Mr. Connor, "we have an official with a thorough knowledge of lumbering in all its branches, and he will be the man in charge on the ground."

"What are your relations to the authorities, to the public generally and to labor," Mr. Connor was asked.

"To the authorities our attitude has always been one of co-operation with any reasonable regulations; to the public we act as men anxious to do business, and maintain cordial relations with our neighbors, while to the claims of labor we have adopted a sympathetic attitude, as a consequence of which there has never been a serious difference of opinion, or strike with our people in Wisconsin." ### THE END OF THE STRIKE.

After inflicting enormous loss upon the country, occasioning much hardship for thousands of ocent people in no way directly involved in the particular dispute out of which it arose, and causing violent death and bloodshed, the sympathetic strike in Winnipeg has come to an end without a single aspiration of those who instigated it being realized. The men who sought to utilize the tie-up as a means of overthrowing constituted authority and erecting a soxiet government, and who, by obtaining control of the machinery of organized labor were able to delude a large number of workers the majority of whom are absolutely sound at heart, into following them up to a certain point, now are awaiting trial for sedition. Millions of dollars have been lost in wages by those who went on strike, many have lost their positions and are con-fronted with an unpromising outlook for the future, the harmony which had existed between employers and employees in many industries for years has been ruptured, leaving bitterness and distrust, and there is nothing to show for it all. Even the issue in the metal workers dispute remains unsettled.

The defeat of the sympathetic strike, however, is not a defeat for the trades unionist movement have pointed out time and again, no prineiple of recognized trades unionism was involved. The heads of labor unionism in America, the men who have directed organized labor for years, who have helped it to achieve its fine record for mutual betterment, were sternly and relentlessly against the strike. They knew it for what it was—a de-liberate attempt planned in Calgary to wreck the trades unionist movement and set up the Red oligarchy denoted by the "One Big Union" idea. They realized that if it had succeeded organized labor would have been severed from its international connection and the source of its chief strength and protection, with the result that ultimately it would have been left at the mercy of the

The strike, thus, was largely a fight between the promoters of the "One Big Union" and sane trades unionism and, therefore, one of the chief factors in its defeat was the attitude of the leaders of the great international organizations and the steadfast support given to them by the mem-bers of the unions throughout the country who declined to join the extremist movement. If the outcome of the trouble will result in the elimination from its ranks of the apostles of Lenine and Trotzky who temporarily have managed to control its local machinery in many instances, organized labor in Canada will emerge stronger, more in fluential and a more effective agency for public good than it ever has been before.

Organized labor has a great opportunity before it. Never was there a time in the history of the country when a fair and sound presentation of its case for the improvement of economic conditions was more certain of hearty support than now; the great neutral populace has no more use for the profiteer than it has for the anarchist. A readiness to co-operate with all other elements for the promotion of the public good, to proceed along reasonable, constitutional lines in effecting essary reforms never fails to enlist the goodwill of the public. The Bolshevist, extremist or Maximalist programme never can succeed in Can-ada. Force , threatening the basic governmental institutions of the country only begets crushing, superior force on the other side. Those institutions are not perfect; far from it. But they are, at least, as perfect as the public whose mental, moral and political processes they reflect. And they are a thousand times more perfect than the produets of anarchy and chaos.

STILL NOT ENOUGH.

Returned soldiers' organizations and other patriotic bodies have patiently awaited the recom-mendations of the Special Committee of the House of Commons on the subject of pensions. Whether the report presented yesterday morning will meet with popular approval or not is extremely problematical, if only for the reason that the rec mended increases fall considerably short of the scale insistently advocated and generally supported. A bonus for one year of twenty per cent. is to be added to the pensions of privates and corporals and ratings below petty officer, which means that total disability pay in the case of an unmarried man will be increased from fifty to sixty to the control of the control dollars per month. The married man similarly diswill now receive seventy-five dollars per month instead of sixty-five as heretofore.

When the pensions committee of the Victoria Reconstruction group undertook to investigate the question in its relation to British Columbia, every conceivable factor was reviewed and taken into account in an endeavor to arrive at the minimum figure that would ensure decent living conditions. In its report forwarded to Ottawa the committee recommended seventy-five dollars per month for the single man totally disabled, and $100 for the the single man totally disabled, and $100 for the married man. And we are of the opinion that for the Province of British Columbia these figures should be taken as the minimum. Support for this contention may be found in the latest monthly report issued by the Dominion Department of Labor wherein more than twenty-one dollars per week is given as the weekly cost of food, fuel and rent of the average Canadian family.

We can readily understand that the increases now recommended would enable the disabled man the cost a living in some of the eastern provinces.

to eke out a living in some of the eastern provinces. Even here the man living on a farm perhaps could make both ends meet if he were able to rely upon free fuel and a considerable portion of his foodstuffs. But it is going to be a difficult job for the disabled married man to live in any city in British Columbia, for the next two or three years at any rate, on seventy-five dollars per month.

It goes without saying, of course, that the increases are timely; but there is tragic irony in circumstances where one department of the public service estimates the average family's living cost several dollars per month higher than another department proposes to pay the family whose breadwin-ner voluntarily reduced himself to helplessness for the sake of his country.

be, of course, that the untiving effects of Dr.
Tolmie and Mr. McIntosh will finally influence the Government to the full measure of its obligation, but we are still of the opinion that it would be just as well to strengthen their hands by a proper weight of persistence which alone seems to have any impression upon the federal authorities.

As the head of the department under whose immediate purview the construction of the dry dock would come, Mr. Carvell is not falling over his feet in facilitating an announcement favorable to immediate progress. His antipathy to the public ownership of public utilities will be remembered from an interview given by him to The Times on the occasion of his visit here last year, while his sentiment towards this city does not appear to have undergone any change if his attitude on the subject of dredging may be taken as a guide. We

The plan devised, therefore, is now dealing with those boy "veterans" who joined the colors not later than their eighteenth birthday, and it is apparently meeting with success.

Like many other post-war arrangements, however, a flaw has already developed—if it may be Mr. Pattullo Offers Views on Like many other post-war arrangements, however, a flaw has already developed—if it may be called a flaw—in the numerous applications that have come to the Department from returned solders who responded to the call just in advance of the minimum age limit for volunteers but under nimeteen years. Obviously a course of resumed study under the scheme must be limited. At the same time, there is much to be said for the nime teen-year-class of volunteer, an age when tuition gets its roots in the mental equipment of the pupil, and it should be a good stroke of business for the state to extend the age limit, so that its provisions may apply in the additional cases.

Responsibility for the war is flow being argued from another standpoint. Everybody is fairly well-satisfied—or, at least, was satisfied before the Schome at took action on the prohibition Order-in-Council—that Germany had already taken her stand in the prisoner's box. But the chief of the Manitoba Temperance Act administration says there can be no inter-provincial trading in liquor until peace is signed with Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey, as well saw it Germany. The acting secretary of the Social Service Council, however, differs from this view and expresses the opinion that as soon as the German delegates sign, the Order-in-Council of April, 1918, is revoked. It is not letting out any secret to say that at least half a dozen people in British Columbia are hoping the latter gentleman is correct in his opinion.

The re-election of the Gouin Government by a large majority is a well-deserved tribute to an Administration which has guided the destinies of Canada's oldest Province with exceptional ability and honesty. The party led by Sir Lomer Gouin has been in power since 1905, and when, in the fullness

The party led by Sir Lomer Gouin has been in power since 1905, and when, in the fullness of time his Government will give way to another, it Red Shield Fund $7,500 With will have left a fine record of achievement. Its leader has shown himself to be a real constructive statesman of the kind sadly needed in the larger field of national administration at this time. It was reported recently that he was about to enter the Federal Cabinet. This would be a very decided gain for Canada, but the report is probably too good

The Government of the "Irish Republic," being out of funds is going to issue bonds. The new securities will have less value than even the paper currency which Lenine is printing in Russia in such quantity that, he hopes, it will destroy the value of money altogether. The "Irish Republic" is a joke, but the fact that its promoters are still at liberty shows, first, that John Bull is very long-suffering and, second, that certain individuals are allowed more freedom in Ireland than they would be allowed anywhere else on earth.

> WHY A COUNT? (Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

The question may be asked why a count, a Prussian, a man clearly a relic of the old imperial regime, was made the chief spokesman of the Socialist government. Brockdorff-Rantzau does not, can not, represent a Socialist democracy. His voice is the voice of the old arrogant imperialism. In accepting Brockdorff for their Foreign Minister and in making him head of the delegation at Verasilles, Ebert and Scheidemann have in large measure made good the claims of those who hold that the new Germany is not really new but merely the old imperial Germany masquerading under a thin disquise.

WHAT ABOUT THE DRY DOCK?

How long the Dominion House of Commons will remain in session is difficult to predict at the moment, but it is just possible that there may be a recess at an early date and a re-assembly in the Fall. Should this arrangement transpire it is highly desirable that the people of Victoria and Beguinalt discover the intentions of the Government in respect of the dry dock for Lang's Cove before the adjournment.

On more than one occasion we have advocated the sending of a delegation to Ottawa so that some tangible understanding might be reached. It may be, of course, that the untiring effects of Dr. Tolmie and Mr. McIntosh will finally influence the Government to the full measure of its obligation, which out natients much be received.

have undergone any change if his attitude on the subject of dredging may be taken as a guide. We note, however, that public ownership of the Canadian Northern has not visibly disturbed the cushions of his Cabinet seat.

EXTENSION ADVISABLE

It is satisfactory to note that many returned soldiers who volunteered for active service oversease between the ages of sixteen and eighteen have taken advantage of the refresher course offered by the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment. Provision made some time ago sought to

A Lively Session.

Ottawa, June 25. There was a lively row at the session of the Commons Cost-of-Living Committee, yesterday, and for a time it looked as if the progress of that body would terminate abruptly, but eventually an armed peace was restored, and although antagonisms were still apparent, the examination of J. C. McLean, of the Harris Abattoir Company, of Toronto, was continued.

The trouble developed over the close examination by R. A. Pringle, K. C., counsel for the Committee, and H. H. Stevens, M. P. for Centre Vancouver, into the capitalization of the Harris Abattoir Company, of Toronto. Early in the sitting Mr. McLean had said that the capital stock of the company was $2,000,000, all common and paid up. On this statement the profits of the company in the fiscal year ended twenty-six per cent.

Later it developed that the original capital nineteen years ago was $150,000, that when the war started it was $880,000, and that it was increased to $2,000,000 in September of last year.

Misled.

"I have been misled as to these statements," said Mr. Pringle. "Believing that the capital was $2,000,000, I stated that the returns were $622,000,400 for the year-ended March 31, 1918. I asked you if that represented 24,10 per cent. You acquiseced. As a matter of fact your capital was $880,000, and your earnings sixty-one per cent.

was no difference bettern patting in fits back into a business and getting in new money. The profits would be in-vested somewhere.

A Tilt.

A Tilt.

Mr. Stevens was proceeding to question the witness as to his ideas on this point when E. W. Nesbitt, M. P. for North Oxford, Ontario, broke in with the remark: "I don't agree with Mr. Stevens at all. This is for the committee to argue out."

He added: "I take off my hat to any institution which can make a profit."

"I am not going to be overruled by you," retorted Mr. Stevens.

"You've been talking too much," said Mr. Nesbitt.

Mr. Nesbitt.

Mr. Stevens replied that it was for the Committee to say. If the Committee did not want this information brought out, then let it say so.

A heated argument followed, Mr. Nesbitt contending that witnesses had not been treated fairly. This was strenuously denied by Mr. Pringle and Mr. Stevens.

When it looked as if the Comittee was going to break up, the chairman poured oil on the troubled waters, and the examination of Mr. McLean proceeded.

Profits.

The net profits of the Harris Abbattoir Company during the last five years were given as follows: 1914-15, $251,-855; 1915-16, $408,232; 1916-17, $444,357; 1917-18, $522,014; 1918-19, $200,000, all common and paid up in eash.

Mr. McLean explained in reply to Mr. Pringle, who asked why the difference in the last two years, that during eight months of the last year the company had been under very trying conditions. Its chief business had been preparing bacon and frozen beef for France.

Mr. Pringle asked

John A. MacDonald and Miss Sophie Geddes Principals In Pretty Wedding

A number of friends of the bridal couple assembled in St. Andrew's Church yesterday at 1.30 o'clock to witness the marriage of John A. MacDonald, of Vancouver, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. MacDonald, of North Ulst, Hebrides, Scotland, to Miss. Sophia-Geddes, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Geddes, or Belfast, Ireland, and niece of Mr. and Mrs. F. McOrmond, 515 St. John Street, with whom she has 515 St. John Street, with whom she has resided for the past five years. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D. D.

ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Leslie Clay, D. D.

The bride was attired in a becoming gown of biscuit-colored embroidered Gorgetie with old rose trimmings and white picture hat, and carried a bouquet of roses and orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Eliza Rec-Keown who wore a pretty frock of fawn taffeta trimmed with blue, with embroidered Georgette hat en suite, and carried a bouquet of pink and white caranations. Miss Lottie Briers performed the duties of maid-of-honor and looked charming in a gown of blue gabardine and white hat. The groom was supported by his cousin, J. A. McDiarmid, of Vancouver. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome emerald and pearl pendant, while to the bridesmald he presented a brooch of emerald and pearls. Among the many beautiful gifts received by the happy couple was a silver cake basket from the bride's friends at Gordon's, Ltd.

After a dainty luncheon served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McCirmond the bridal couple left for a tour of the Coast. On their return they will make their home at 3345 Sophia Street, Vancouver, where they, will be "at home" to their many friends after August 1.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED YESTERDAY

An exceptional pretty ceremony took place at Centennial Methodist Church yesterday afternoon when Flossie Jean, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Kennedy, 96 Gorge Road, and Frederick, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knight, of 137 Dallas Road, were united in marriage, the Rev. A. S. Colwell performing the ceremony in the presence of a large congregation.

When the organist, Edgar Adams, played the Wedding March the bride with her father entered the church looking eharming in a graceful frock of delicately-shaded pink georgette with embroidered overskirt fashioned in drape effect. Her picture hat of soft georgette matched the dress, and the big bouquet which she carried was of roses, carnations, and sweet peas. She had two attendants, a maid-of-honor, Miss Jessie Kennedy, her sister, who wore a girlish and becoming

Friday morning after reserving judsment yesterday in the appeal of Weilington Collieries (Dunsmuir) Ltd., vs. the Pacific Coast Coal Mines Ltd.
The appeal was taken from the judsment of Mr. Justice Murphy giving, plaintiffs $44,000 and damages against defendants for trespass in taking coal from property of plaintiffs adjoining that of defendants.
The defence was that permission was granted by W. Coulson, late manager of plaintiff company. Two witnesses testified that permission had been granted, but Judge Murphy while stating that there was nothing in the demeanour of these two witnesses or their manner of giving evidence adverse to their statements, held t/a tin view of the fact that the defit co of permission had not been set up until after Coulson's death, and there was also some contradiction between these two-witnesses he could not accept the defence.

It was further pointed out that a mistake had been made, that the defence of permission had been get up of the fact that the defence of the trades union movement

It was further pointed out that a mistake had been made, that the defence of permission had been set up at the first opportunity, and before Coulson's death. It was argued that the fact of the two witnesses having different motives for attending a conference with Coulson when he confirmed the permission previously given did not amount to a contradiction at all. This contention, however, was opposed by counsel for plaintiffs.

Douglas Armour, K. C., with Mr. Norris, appeared for the plaintiffs and W. J. Taylor, K. C. with Mr. Brethour for the defendants.

The Business Tax.

To the Editor,—I read with amazement in this morpring's "Colonist" that the City Coursel propose to raise the retail merchants' business tax from $10 to $190 yearly; that is, to ten times the present tax. I note this applies to both wholesale and retail merchants, thus putting the small dealer in the same class as the big dealer. If the mitention is to put the small men out of business and have half the stores empty in this city, nothing better could be conceived. It would delight the big merchants, as a tax of $190 would be nothing to them, but it would be a positive hardship to the small dealer, who is barely making a living now. A much fairer plan would be to arrange a sliding scale on the amount of rent a merchant was able to pay or, in the case where the place was owned by the merchant, its rental value. Or a basis could be arranged on the amount of clerks employed and salaries paid. In Calgary, Alberta, the merchants were assessed for taxation on the value of their stock, and it worked very satisfactorily. At present a merchant carrying on a variety of business under one roof pays no more than a small dealer who is just able to make both end meet.

R. A. RUFFLE.

THANKS FOR AID.

To the Editor,—Would you kindly allow me to thank all those ladies of the St. James W. A. and their friends, who so generously helped to make the recent sale of work a success; also friends who assisted in the concert? The net proceeds were $110.

TEACHING THRIFT.

To the Editor,—Your issue of Sat-urday, June 21, gives a sketch of a "Canadian" highway that it is pro-posed to construct from Sidney, Cape Breton to Cape Scott, Vancouver

May I ask if this is what the thrift stamp money is to be spent on?

HIGH PRICES.

To the Editor.—There seems to be a doubt in the public mind as to who is to blame for the exhorbitant profits there must be in the present high prices. Some think it is the whole-saler, other the retailer, but mostly, as to agricultural products, blame the farmer. The following will perhaps throw some light upon the retail prices charged for potatoes: A merchant at Courtenay has been buying them from the farmer at $20 a ton in the way of a trade and retailing them out to consumers at $2 a sack, or $40 a ton. My informant, upon who I can implicitly rely has been a purchaser and knows the facts.

The miners of the district and other workers have come to the conclusion that this kind of thing is the cause of the high prices of living and they are getting sore over it. Why do not the authorities on the food question take action?

MR. DONNACHIE REPLIES.

MR. DONNACHIE REPLIES.

To the Editor,—As my name has been mentioned in your paper of June 24 under the heading. "This Wanton. Needless Strike," may I be permitted to reply to some of the statements of this writer?

"Shipyard Worker" states my salary is $250 per month, or $3,000 per year. This, Mr. Editor, is news to me and comes with rather a shock. As regards the remuneration during this strike and what I shall do with it. "S. W." can have full information by signing his name.

His entire lack of knowledge concerning the proceedings of the various organizations, financial and otherwise, leads me to believe that he is not a member of the trades union movement in this city. My position, on or off the public platform, is never based on the "hearsays" or "someone told me so," as permeates "Shipyard Worker's" letter from beginning to end. And I have always had the courage of my convictions to hit in the open and require no such subterfuge as "Shipyard Worker."

To the Editor.—A letter appeared in your issue of yesterday written by one who signed himself "Shipyard Worker." I do not intend to reply lengthly, but I certainly can honestly repudiate every statement he made. He stated that out of a crowd of 1,200 to 1,500 workers who attended the mass meeting 300 appeared to be enthusiastic for a strike, 200 were lukewarm, and the rest absolutely antagonistic. The ridicule he applied to the speakers can be overlooked. Mr. Donnache was supposed to receive $3,000 a year for his services and all other trade union of-

"Small red pimples and black-heads began on my face, and my face was badly disfigured. Some of the pimples featured while others scaled over and there were places where the pimples were in blotches. They used to fich and burn terribly. "I saw an advertise-ment for Cuticurs and I tried them. tation to the many to suffer them from within.

Between 2,500 and 3,000 people attended the meeting, and with the exception of five, all voted in the usual way for the resolution put forward by Mr. Frank Slavin. Mr. Donnachie receives his craft union wage for carpenters and every official receives "nothing" as much as the strikers, while the strike is in progress. If I may say so, I believe "Shipyard Worker" is a type of unionist that has no interest in "unionism" apart from what he can get out of it, the monetary standard in wages being entirely due to the efforts, "hard work," worry and abuse of a few decent workers in labor's ranks that deserve high commendation. In conclusion I would suggest that labor should have a chance to refute "Shipyard Worker's" statements through its official organ, The Tribuhe, which would necessitate the writer's name, promising all the time a fair deal.

Imagine an aristrocratic house party deciding to play a panitomime and the difficulties with which the elected producer is beset in endeavouring to get them to play their parts as he "knows they should be played." "It'll be right on the night" is the consoling phrase with which the stage-manager is constantly greeted in his despairing moments which are frequently occurring. Imagine the fun and humor which an expert and accomplished playwright could bring (and has brought) into action. The play is full of the most amusing situations splendidly carried by the members of the excellent company. Frequently interspersed by the most delightful singing and some pretty dancing it provides a most enjoyable evenings entertainment which none should miss the opportunity of witnessing. DOMINION

The Whip" with the owner's factor and the American machine gun athletes, are among the very best in a the earobatic world. Five men and two women give this fast routine of somersaults and aerial twisters, and two women give this fast routine of somersaults and aerial twisters, and two women give this fast routine of somersaults and aerial twisters, and two women give this fast routine of somersaults and aerial twisters, and two work with remarkable smooth-ness and agility. The most sensational feature of their performance is the introduction of the tandem somersault, which is the peer of all dare-devil acrouple with the famous "Lost Battallon," of the United States army overseas. John Tester was shot through and through in that memorable fight in the depths of the Argonne forest when the unit was fully cut off from the main army and threatened with annihilation at the hands of the Huns. That was the

That was the time when Colonel Whittlesy, in com-mand, sent his classic reply to the Germans when demanded to surrender —"Go to hell," he told them, and the remnants of the battalion fought their way out against overwhelming odds.

COLUMBIA

Always artistic and lavish in the settings for their productions, Metro has again achieved a scene which will delight and please all those who see it in "The Poor Rich Man," at the Columbia to-day. This play in which the two popular co-stars, Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, play the leading roles, was directed by Charles J. Brabin, noted for the splendor of his scenic effects and his care for the minutest detail pertaining to his productions. This scene, of which so much care has been taken, is an exact replica of the much-admired "peacock alley" of the Hotel Bittmore.

mirred "peacock alley" of the Hotel Biltmore.

An example of practical camounage is given by Charlis Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms," which is an addedattraction at the Columbia, when he disguises himself as a tree stump and starts on a spying trip into enemy territory, only to be met by a small party of Huns, seeking firewood, who promptly decide to chop down the buman stump as an addition to the load of wood they are about to take back to their trenches.

In Charlie's opinion, his attempt at camouflage is entirely too successful, and his resentment over the stupidity of the Huns in mistaking him for a gendine stump gets him into countless difficulties.

VARIETY

Her justification is powerfully portrayed by Alice Joyce as Shirley in "The Lion and the Mouse," the Vitagraph super-feature, which will be seen at the Variety again to-day, "The Lion and the Mouse" is adapted from the famous stage success of the same name, written by the late Charles Klein, and was produced under the personal supervision of Albert E. # Was Troubled With BOILS

FOR SIX MONTHS

From the days of Job to the present time, bolls have been one of the greatest afflictions of the human race.

Very few people escape from having them at some time.

All the pouliticing and lancing you may do won't cure them and stop more coming.

Boils are caused by bad blood bursting out, and the bad blood must be made pure before the boils will disappear.

Burdock Blood Bitters is the greatest blood purifier known. It cleanses the system, and purifies the blood by removing every particle of foul material from the system, and when this is done, never another boil comes and health and strength are permanently restored.

Mr. C. H. Bridges. 476 Barton St. E. Hamilton, Ont., writes: "L. was troubled with boils for about six months and tried several remedies without any relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters, and the effect has been wonderful. After using two bottles I was rid of them all. I feel like a new man, my appetite is better, and I sleep better than I have for years. I can highly recommend B. B. B. to all who are tranbled as I was."

The junior champion of British Columbia showed his form by defeating B. Ciceri one of the strong players of the club in two sets. Ciceri was not, however, up to form. The match between Mrs. Cochrane and Mrs. Marston, two new members, in which Mrs. Marston won 6-3, 6-4, was very keenly contested despite the score, both ladishowing promise of developing in good players. The Veteran J. G. Brown also showed him to form disposing of his opponent, Mr. F. A. Jackson in two sets 6-3, 6-1, although this score does not by any means represent the play, especially so in the first set when every game but the first went to deuce and advantage. Messrs. Fairbairn and Kennedy had serious diffculty in getting rid of their opponent, Messrs. Reade and Taylor in the second set, which ended 8-6, and but for a bit of hard luck might easily have meant a third set, and as the lattre pair were playing with more confidence as the match proceeded, might have pulled the game off.

After Two Games With Nanaimo Are One Point Ahead On Chart

The football championship of the Nanaimo District League has been cinched by Ladysmith as the result of two games played Sunday against Nanaimo United. This, however, was not enough to overcome Ladysmith City's lead, which required either a win or a draw by the Reserve team in their game against Ladysmith Athleties. The annual swimming, diving and water polo championships of the Pasific Northwest Association which are to be held under the auspices of the Victoria and Island Athletic Association at Curtis Point adjoining the city park at the Gorge, on Saturday afternoon, July 19, promise to be one of the biggest sporting events ever held in the Pacific Northwest. An lonovation.

A novel innovation.

A novel innovation in swimming championship events will be introduced by the committee in charge at this meet, namely, it is the intention to run off the races for the men and women concurrently in two separats courses, running parallel to one another. This will necessitate two, complete sets of officials. If it is possible to arrange for two 10 ft. diving towers the fancy diving will also be run-offin a like manner. The polo course will be laid out adjoining the swimming enclosure. In connection with the water polo championships it has been decided by the championship it has been decided by the champi

To Entertain Men.

It is the intention of the entertainment committee of the V. I. A. A. to hold a series of entertainments in honor of the visiting swimmers. One of the features will be an informal banquet which will be held in the beautiful rose arbour situate on the cluh's summer home at Curtis Point, which will be lavishly decorated for the occasion by the decorating committee. In the evening the grounds which have been specially wired for the occasion will be lit up, and should create a pleasing impression on the visiting swimmers and their friends. As there will be excursions from all points on the Pacific Northwest on this day it is expected that as this meet has been extensively advertised both through the press and through the Northwest Reality Association, which is holding its convention in this city at that time, thousands of visitors will come to Victoria for that day. As the election can not be held without recording the votes of the soldiers, the Premier is considering a scheme that will enable them to vote by mail granted to the men.

A report current yesterday said the army classes of 1907, 1968 and 1909 would be mustered out the day after the treaty is signed.

INQUIRY REQUESTED AT WINNIPEG BUT NO PROMISE BY CABINET

Toronto, June 25.—Strikers and officials of the Toronto Street Railway Company to-day expressed themselves as more hopeful of a settlement following various conferences during the last twenty-four hours. This is brought about by the general admission that an increase in fares undoubtedly will be an essential to the settlement of the men's demands.

This afternoon there will be another conference of all parties, with Mayor Church and a committee of citizens. Sir William Jiearst, the Bremier of Ontario, will take part at this meeting or be represented by members of the provincial Cabinet.

Representatives of the strikers said this meeting and the said t

Berlin, June 24.—Via London, July 25.—(Associated Press.)—Long accounts written for the Berlin papers by correspondents at Welmar, telling of events preceding the decision of the German Government to sign the freaty of peace, show that there was a threat by generals and officers of the volunteer troops to quit if the treaty was signed without reservations. Gustav Noske, Minister of Defence, proffered his resignation, but later succeeded in appeasing the officers. He then withdrew his resignation.

Feeling among military leaders, is still running high, though they are admonishing the troops to continue in the service. Major-General Baron von Luettwitz, in a special call, reiterates his opposition to the peace terms, while Major von Glisa, Noeke's adjutant, has remounced that Pression We. Ministers.

Borden Outlines Government's Programme For Remainder

Ottawa June 25.—Sir Robert Borden, in the House this morning, announced the Government's programme for the remainder of the seasion. There would be, he said, a bill to amend the Criminal Code for the purpose of putting into effect some of the recommendations of the committee on sedition; and a bill to enable Indians who had served in the Canadian Expeditionary Force and wished to go on the land to be provided with land on Indian reserves.

The committee of the House which had been investigating the high cost of living also might make certain recommendations in the course of a few days, Sir Robert Borden went on, and if the recommendations were made it would be necessary for the Government to consider them and possibly to present a measure for the consideration of the House.

There would be an amendment to the Drydock Subsidies Act, for the purpose of increasing the percentage of assistance on second-class docks. There would be a pensions bill to carry out the recommendation of the Committee en Pensions and a resolution respecting the transfer of the port of St. John to a Harbor Commission. There would be a bill to amend the Fisheries Act and the Minister of Finance would introduce a borrowing bill.

Negotiations also were in progress with the city of Ottawa looking for a new financial agreement with the city, and if an agreement with the city, and if an agreement were reached there would be a bill to make temporary provision for the holding of by-elections, but it was not intended to proceed with the general franchise bill. For Weeks.

D. D. McKenzie, the Opposition Leader, said that the Frime Minister's announcement covered "quite a formidable list." He wanted to know if the bills were ready for introduction, and expressed the view that the legislation outlined was sufficient to keep the House in session for several weeks. Sir Robert expressed the hope that there would not be much delay in reaching prorogation, and he promised to introduce all the bills without delay.

Labor Conditions in Japan.

I find here as elsewhere great unreat in the field of labor. Before the war laborers were paid 65 sen per day (33 cents). Now they are paid more than twice that amount. The cost of food is more than double, while coal has advanced three huudred per cent. Hotels used to charge on American plan, ten yen per day (35). Now it is twenty yen per day. (31). Now it is twenty yen per day. (32). Now it is twenty yen per day. (31). Now it is twenty yen per day. (32). Now it is seriously hurt as to put them out of business.

The Japanese are eager for trade but are adopting the safe course, for all business of importance is conducted on a bank credit opened in Japan. Japan is a real factor in the world of commerce and must be reckoned with as a live people and work into one another's hands.

The Great Fire in Yokohama.

The Great Fire in Yokohama.

It is a pitiful sight to walk around the still smoking ruins caused by the great fire a few weeks ago when over 3,000 houses were burned and 30,000 poor people were made homeless. The fire was near the Yoshiwara, but it escaped. The people are still raking the ashes trying to saive some of the household furniture or a few bits of crockery, but it is a desolate sight. However, the Japanese are not given to worry for long so now they are beginning to smile and are hard at work rebuilding.

The wrangle between the city and Oak Bay over the upkeep of the Duchess Street Fire Hall is still as far from a solution as ever.

Last night representatives of Oak Bay met members of the City Council, and considered the city's request that the municipality's contribution taward, the upkeep of the hall be increased greatly. The Oak Bay delegates appeared willing that the present appropriation should be raised, but they did not feel that they should satisfy the city's demands in full. The aldermen, however, were persistent, and maintained that Oak Bay should pay what was asked or lose the protection afforded by the hall. tained that OBK Day shows was asked or lose the protection af-forded by the hall.

Little Inconvenience.

The seamen's strike has been in effect three weeks and, although the walk-out disrupted the regular services, the steamship companies have been maintaining the more essential routes without serious inconvenience. According to remarks emanating from members of the Seamen's Union, the strike has not been popular with the large majority.

Many of the strikers have already returned to work.

Pending a settlement of the dispute, however, no announcement will be made by the companies regarding a resumption of the normal services.

The majority of the men on the Dominion lighthouse tender Estevan, who were given forty-eight hours' notice by the union on Monday to declare themselves, failed to respond to the strike order.

WELCOME CLUB HOLD SATURDAY TAG DAY

Expects Citizens to Contribute Liberally to Work of Welcoming Soldiers

In order to secure necessary funds for the continuance of the work of welcoming returned soldiers and also to provide some support for dependants particularly those who arrive here from England and through some unforeseen difficulty are prevented from joining their husbands, the Victoria Welcome Club will hold a Tag Day on Saturday. The Red Cross Society very kindly offered the Tag Day to the club as an appreciation of its splendid work.

an opportunity to contribute and assist in the noble work.

The officers of the Club explain that all the monies that are not used in the reception of the soldiers will be devoted to a cause equally as deserving, namely that of caring for dependents. To illustrate the need of some one to look after these dependents one of the officials stated yesterday that owing to the strike a lady with five children who had arrived from England were forced to remain in this city and the husband unable to get here from the north of the Island. The lady was in need of assistance and the necessary money was eventually found.

There is great need for work along this line, the officials declare and are hopeful that the citizens will contribute liberally to such a worthy cause.

Long Vacation.—During long va-cation in the Courts, which lasts through July and August, Supreme Court Chambers will be held each Thursday at 10.30 a.m. Both the Sup-reme and County Court trial lists are almost completed, and it is expected that all cases will be disposed of by Monday next.
